Unofficial Results of the 2020 City of Fruita Municipal Election

Fruita, Colorado – Below are the unofficial results of the 2020 City of Fruita Municipal Election. Based upon these unofficial results, Joel Kincaid has been elected Mayor of the City of Fruita for a two-year term. In the City Council race, Heather O’Brien, Ken Kreie, and Matthew Breman have been elected to the Fruita City Council for four-year terms. The change of City Council is scheduled to take place on April 21, 2020, during a City Council meeting. The meeting will begin with old business the current City Council considers, followed by the farewell of Council Members Dave Karisny and Amanda Ewing, whose terms were completed and who both chose not to run again. Then Mayor Kincaid and Council members Matthew Breman, Ken Kreie, and Heather O’Brien will take the oath of office to begin their new terms and considering new business on the City Council agenda that night.

Referred Issue A, concerning an increase to the Fruita lodging tax, was approved by the Fruita voters.

Election results are considered to be “unofficial” until after a review, or “canvass” of the election results is completed to verify the results. The “canvass” must be completed no later than 10 days after the election. Military/Overseas voters and voters whose signatures were rejected have until 8 days after the election to return/cure their ballot. In theory, the “unofficial” results could change by a very small amount.
