

FRUITA ARTS AND CULTURE BOARD
MINUTES
June 9, 2021

ATTENDING: Tom Casal, Sally D'Agostino, Nancy Patterson, Pam Paris, Patty Doss, Marian Heesaker, Pavia Justinian, Kyle Harvey, Giselle Genova and Andrea Stolarcsky.

Call to Order: 5:33 p.m..

Approval of Minutes: Approval of May minutes tabled until July meeting.

Public Participation: No public present.

City Council Update: Moon Farm may be purchased by Grand Valley Equine who would look to retain the property's historical significance as well as use for events which would also include art events and art therapy workshops.

Year in the Life Photo Contest: Has fewer and fewer submissions. Need an updated poster with QR code and promotions to generate more interest if we continue the contest.

Roundabouts: Jeff Bates has a deadline for completion of the sculptures on August 2 or 3. Need to plan for a ribbon cutting ceremony around that time.

Wellspring Project: Thirteen students are participating; one of the essays submitted was read to the Board, as an inspiring example. Saturday will start with the launch on the river. The mural has been started by Pavia J who showed preliminary sketch. Social media is rolling. Tasks and schedule for the week was reviewed with Board volunteers.

Scholarships: Committee met last Wednesday and will continue to meet the first Wednesday of each month.

Farmers Market: Starts June 19 in Reed Park. There are 20 weeks to fill. Need to vary the medium – dance, poetry, art, theater.

There being no New Business the meeting was adjourned at 6:17 p.m.

Next FACB meeting July 14, 5:30 p.m. at Fruita City Shops.
